

The Promise Programs

Three innovative opportunities to build sustainability and your business.

Social, economic and environmental challenges make cocoa growing communities especially vulnerable. As one of the largest players in the cocoa sector, we believe we have a responsibility to address these challenges at origin and foster greater resilience and prosperity.

The Cargill Cocoa Promise

The Cargill Cocoa Promise is our commitment to ensuring a thriving cocoa sector for generations to come.

Farmers

Empowering farmers to become professional entrepreneurs who manage their farms as businesses.

Communities

Enabling cocoa-growing communities to build local decision-making capacity and ownership.

Landscapes

Integrating best practices in cocoa sourcing, including deforestation prevention.

Now you can be a part of this Promise. Introducing the Promise Programs

Third-party certified products are also available.
